

Hello family & friends!

November was an incredibly beautiful, busy, bittersweet month! We were able to clean out our first apartment with the help of my awesome family! Jacob wrapped up working at The Garden Fellowship. The jr high students were so sad to see us go, but it was so sweet to show them what walking in faith looks like after teaching them about obedience. Of course, we said goodbyes to family and friends, and that was very difficult. It was encouraging to watch our community come together to lift us up. We are so blessed to have so many people who make “see ya later” so hard!

We packed up our home into an 8x12 trailer and drove across California, Arizona, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, and all the way down to Boynton Beach, Florida! It was a four-day drive that the Lord truly blessed! My siblings rode with us, and we had so much fun playing games, making stories, and sharing what we were most excited about!

We got to meet our new church family at Calvary Chapel of the Palm Beaches and were overwhelmed by love, encouragement, and so many amazing people sharing that they had been praying for us! We truly feel so loved and blessed by our new church, and we haven't even been here for a month yet! Some incredible people in the church cleaned and painted our apartment, and when we walked in, it felt like home! The boys unloaded as the girls tidied up and started to unpack! We were able to enjoy exploring the city with my family until they left early Thanksgiving morning! They were such a help and blessing throughout this entire process!

We got to have a day where both my family and Jacob's family were here together! The day before Thanksgiving, we got to enjoy lunch and the beach as one big family! We got to spend our Thanksgiving with Jacob's family exploring a wildlife reserve, looking for alligators, and enjoyed spending the day together! While his family was in town, we got to explore more of our city and do lots of window shopping! It was so sweet to make so many new memories with his family in our new hometown as we got to know each other better!

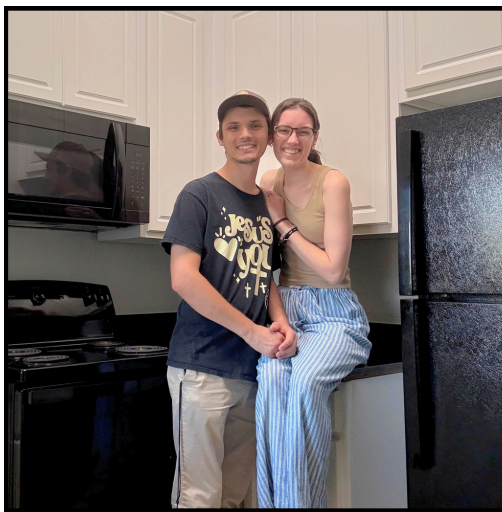

After everyone left, the homesickness started to set in. It feels so strange not knowing many people, but we are so excited to start getting to know the people in the church better! We are so at peace with where the Lord has us. We know He is going to open all the right doors and is going to create some beautiful friendships! We officially start our internship on December 2nd, and our first hands-on church service is December 7th! We're so excited to start getting involved! We can hardly wait to see all the Lord has in store for us!

Thank you all for praying for us! We have felt so loved and supported in this time!  You are truly a gift from God! We love you!

Dancing to our first dance song before leaving our home!

Picture in our empty home before we say goodbye to it!

Our new home was decorated to celebrate this new season!

All loaded up and ready for our cross country drive!

First service at our new church!

Last picture with my whole family before they left!

Jacob's family's first time seeing our new home!

Looking for alligators!
We saw so many!

Saying "see you later" to all Jacob's siblings and parents!

"Behold, I am doing a new thing;
now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert."
Isaiah 43:19

